Synopsis of Paper (provided by the speaker)

The Panellite cell ceiling system enables the end user to have all the aesthetic advantages of a monolithic open cell ceiling. The system provides for flexibility in design, ease of access to equipment or service lines, excellent interface with air-flow systems and lighting system, easy maintenance, and speed of installation.

Sound Micro acoustical panels are the perfect solution for many reverberant noise problems. Adding acoustical panels to the room or space creating terrific acoustic environment.
