Borneo Architecture Festival Sketching Competition is back

KOTAKINABALU: In conjunction with the World Architecture Day (WAD) celebration in October, the sketching competition is back after two years of break due to Covid-19 pandemic.

The sketching competition is a sub-event of the annual Borneo Architecture Festival BAF 2022: Borneo Moving Forward, which will be happening from Oct 21 to 23 at Sabah International Convention Center (SICC) Kota Kinabalu.

Events such as the BAF Architecture Convention, BIMP (Brunei, Indonesia, Malaysia, the Phillipines) Architects Summit, IPEX (International Property Exhibition), PAM Sabah Chapter 45th Annual Dinner and the first PAM Sabah Awards for Architectural Excellence will be held. The theme of the sketching is "KK Seafront Moving Forward". Participants are required to select their seafront view and sketch to compete for the prizes. The seafront view shall cover the whole area of Tanjung Lipat. Registration shall start from 2.30 pm to 3.30pm at Anjung Selera, the meeting point.

Organising chairman of BAF 2022, Ar Rizal Ahmad Banjar welcomes members of PAM Sabah Chapter, friends, students, local artists and the public to participate in the sketching competition.

There are two categories: Student for age 13 to 18; Open for age 19 and above, with a total of RM4,600 cash prizes to be won.

Winning and selected artworks shall also be considered to be exhibited during BAF 2022.

Any sketching media/material is allowed (except digital media) preferred by participants. Participants are also required to bring their own A3 size paper (297mm x 420mm) on the day of the competition.

Participants can forward queries and submit their registration form to PAM Sabah Chapter secretariat via email to pamsabah@gmail.com or (WhatsApp only) at 016-282 9579, 0165825001, 013-9452994. Walk-ins are welcome.
